Backertop Licensing LLC v. August Home, Inc
Civil Action No. 1:22-cv-00573-CFC

Dear Judge Connolly:

This letter is in regards to the above-captioned cases and your June 8 oral order requiring my law firm to re-produce the documents produced on May 9, 2023 by July 17, 2023 however identifying that the documents were produced directly from my law firm's records.

As you know, Backertop filed a Notice of Objection on July 12, and it does not authorize my firm to re-produce the documents and has retained Attorney David Finger to represent it. For that reason, I am filing this letter. I do not want to violate a Court Order and I do not want to violate my duties towards my client, Backertop Licensing, LLC.

I am local counsel for Backertop Licensing, LLC and was not involved in the drafting of the documents and only reviewed the documents prior to filing them. For that reason, I do not have any draft iterations of any documents but only have the final versions which were filed with the Court. All communications in my firm's possession were produced on May 8. I am taking all efforts not to violate the Court Order as well as not violating my duty to my client under the Attorney Client relationship. I will bring the documents to Court with me at the July 20 hearing.

Respectfully submitted,

CHONG LAW FIRM PA
